

Our Privacy Policy

Our Commitment to Privacy

Your privacy is important to us. To better protect your privacy, we provide this notice explaining our online information practices and the choices you can make about the way your information is collected and used. To make this notice easy to find, we make it available on every page of our website.

The Information We Collect:

This notice applies to all information collected or submitted on the East Texas Home Center website. The types of personal information that we collect are:

- Your Name
- Email address
- Phone number

The Way We Use Information:

We use the information you provide about yourself only to aid in providing you with an quote, answering your questions, or following up any comments and/or requests. We do not share this information with any outside party.

We use return email addresses to answer the email we receive. Such addresses are not used for any other purpose and are not shared with any outside party.

We use non-identifying and aggregate information to better design our website and to share with advertisers. For example, we may tell an advertiser that X number of individuals visited a certain area on our website, or that Y number of men and Z number of women filled out our registration form, but we would not disclose anything that could be used to identify those individuals.

Finally, we never use or share the personally identifiable information provided to us online in ways unrelated to the ones described above.

Our Commitment To Data Security

To prevent unauthorized access, maintain data accuracy, and ensure the correct use of information, we have put in place appropriate physical, electronic, and managerial procedures to safeguard and secure the information we collect online.

Our Commitment To Children's Privacy:

Protecting the privacy of the very young is especially important. For that reason, we never collect or maintain information at our website from those we actually know are under 13, and no part of our website is structured to attract anyone under 13.
